

A HAPPY TALE

When I was a fish
Swimming about in the sea
I used to get scared
When the sharks followed me

One day I was caught
In a fisherman's net
I was hauled on board
And left on the deck

Dazed and lonely
I could have cried
So what happened next
Was quite a surprise!

"Hello! Little fella"
A friendly voice said
"No need to be frightened
Don't you fret".

"I'll take you home
For my daughter to see
I can't wait to see her face
When she sees YOU with me".

The fisherman's daughter
Had wanted a pet
So when she saw me
Her heart was set!

Now I love my new owner
And my owner loves me
Since living with her
I am SAFE and I'm FREE!
